

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, May 21. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated May 22.

From the Camp at Rivoli, May 6.

THE 29th of last Month, the Enemy attempted to lay a Bridge over the River below la Ferrara, but Count Albergotti advancing thither hinder'd them, causing so great a Fire of small Arms to be made upon them that he oblig'd them to quit their Enterprize, after having kill'd several of their Soldiers. They endeavour'd to lay their Bridge somewhat lower; but they found the same Opposition; and since that, the 2 Armies cannonade each other cross the River. The Duke of Vendome keeps Men at Work upon the Intrenchment from Garda to the Adige. He has detach'd 3 Regiments of Horse, and the Hussars, which will be follow'd by some Battalions, for Piemont, whence 'tis advis'd that the King's Army was to draw together the 7th or 8th and march 2 Days after to invest Turin.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 25.

Turin, May 5. The Enemy continue to send to Chivas and Susa all things necessary for the Siege of this City. Their Troops have begun to draw together, out of the Quarters on our Frontiers and in the Monterrat: Their Bridge at Chivas is finish'd: Most of their Troops are to rendezvous the 9th Instant at Montenare, in order to move this Way and meet those that are to come from Susa: And they give out their whole Army will sit down before this Place the 15th of this Month, and that they will employ 120 Cannon and a great Number of Mortars against it. Upon Intelligence of all these Preparations and Motions of the Enemy, his Royal Highness has sent Order to his Troops to draw out of their Quarters: His Horse is to arrive to Day at Rivoli, and the Imperial Horse at St. Michel, between Asti and this City; and the greatest part of the Infantry are order'd to come hither. General Taun is gone to Asti, to give the necessary Orders for the March of the Troops, and for the Preservation of that Place. We are at present busy in placing Cannon on the Fortifications made upon our rising Grounds. The 1st of this Month the Governour of Chivas advanc'd to Gasse with 3 or 400 Men, and view'd some Houses, in order as we suppose to the establishing there the Hospital of the Enemy's Army.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 25.

Milan, May 10. Yesterday 1200 Horse, detach'd from the Duke of Vendome's Army, pass'd by Lodi for Piemont; and 4000 Foot are coming after them; with which Reinforcement the Duke de la Feuillade will be enabled to push on the Siege of Turin with Vigour. The Duke of Vendome has sent his heavy Baggage and Cannon to Mantua, which makes it presum'd he will shortly pass the Adige, to attack the Enemy who lie intrench'd not far from Roveredo.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 25.

Cazal, May 12. The sudden Swelling of the River has render'd it very difficult to send up the Artillery design'd to be employ'd against Turin, and has occasion'd the deferring of that Siege some Days. 'Tis advis'd from Chivas, that the Duke de la Feuillade will lay Siege to Turin to morrow, tho' some are of Opinion he will not do it till the 15th.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 25.

Nuremberg, May 18. 'Tis said the Palatine Troops that are on the March for Italy, have receiv'd Orders to halt, their Elector being apprehensive he shall have Occasion for them on the Rhine, unless some stop be put to the Progress of the Enemy there. The Boors inhabiting the Forest of Bregentz, having tumultuously drawn together in Arms, have made themselves Masters of the Town of Bregentz, and demand to be reimburs'd the Money which for some time past they had been forc'd to pay towards the War. All is quiet at present in Bavaria: 4 Princes, Children of the late Elector, are carry'd to Clagenfurt in Carinthia, and are accompany'd by Baron Guidebon, Count Fougher, and the Barons Losch and Hegueberg; who are all to return to Munich, soon after the Count of Thierheyem, who alone is to have the Charge of those Princes, arriv's at Clagenfurt.

Plymouth, May 17. This Day came in from the Westward Sir Stafford Fairborne in Her Majesty's Ship the Eagle, with the Monmouth, Rumney, Milford, Kent, Dunkirk, August, and Triton; with 6 Prizes from Rochelle, laden with Wines, Fish, Fruit, Iron, Wooll, &c. Having forc'd ashore or burnt 10 Vessels more. Arriv'd the St. Elizabeth of and for Amsterdam, from Smyrna, but lost from Gibraltar.

Tarmouth, May 17. Last Night and this Morning sail'd out of these Roads about 40 Sail of Light Colliers, and with them her Majesty's Ship the Chatam Prize.

Harwich, May 18. On Tuesday Night the Prince Pacquet-Boat from Holland arriv'd here, having landed an Express and a Mail the same Morning at Alborough.

Deal, May 19. The Neptune Galley from Leghorn, Captain Bickford Commander arriv'd here this morning. She came the fourth Instant from Gibraltar, and brings Advice, that a Felucca was arriv'd at Gibraltar from Barcelona, with an Account, that the Earl of Peterborough being joyn'd by the Miquelets (the Garrison sallying at the same Time) had fallen on the Duke of Anjou's Army, totally defeated them, and cut them all off.

Gibraltar,

Gibraltar, May 4. O. S. Sir John Leake fail'd hence for Barcelona on the 14th of April, with some Store Ships, and the rest were left for the coming of Sir George Bing, who 'twas expected would have call'd here, and taken them all with him. But on the 17th Sir George fail'd by in the Night, making all the fail he could to joyn Sir John Leake, and made no stop to take the Transports along with him; so that they are here still, but expect to be sent for soon, because we have receiv'd News by a Ship that came in to Day, that the French Fleet have left Barcelona on the News of Sir John Leake's coming to visit them, and that their Army before the Place is all cut off; some say the Duke of Anjou is kill'd or taken Prisoner, others that he is gone to Toulon on board the Fleet. Particulars are not to be depended on; but you may be assur'd in general that the whole French Army in Catalonia is destroy'd.

By Command.

Honorable Fornello, Gent. no Physician, could hardly be persuaded to publish his Dissolution Salt, as being laborious to be made, and since it has been (which you know is a good while ago) People have and do flock to buy it, as also send for it out of Foreign Countries, as New-England, &c. giving it its due Praise. It is a Remedy for the Stone and Gravel, which it totally roots out; by dissolving it in the Kidneys and Bladder, and carries it away insensibly by Urine, yet visible if made in a Vial and suffered to settle, being undeniable that the Stone is dissolved. He was cured by it himself, as also divers Gentlemen in London since it has been publish'd, and others have found a great benefit by it, which are not willing their Names should be expos'd, by observing the Rule, next God's Blessing, none shall have need to be cut for this Distemper. Whoever will prevent the settling of Gravel, take a Dose in 8 or 14 days and continue so, that Body shall never smart for it. It keeps good many years For a larger account and directions, you are refer'd to the Paper given with it, being to be had of Mr. Thomas Dowse, Perfumer, at the Sign of the Plough in Grace-Church-street, London, and no where else in all England, Price 4 s. the half Ounce, which is 8 Doses.
